1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. The Supervisory Board of Joint-Stock Company ALROSA (hereinafter referred to as the Company) is the Company's management body acting under and in compliance with the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies, the Company's Charter and these Regulations.

The Supervisory Board reports to the General Meeting of the Company's Shareholders.

1.2. The Supervisory Board executes overall management of the Company's operations apart from the issues included into the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders by the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies and the Company's Charter.

1.3. The Supervisory Board shall ensure that the Company implements its aims and objectives stipulated by the Company's Charter and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Supervisory Board.

1.4. The main tasks of the Supervisory Board are:

- determination of the Company's development strategy,
- determination of the principles of the Company's assets management,
- ensuring the efficient system of the Company's financial and operating performance monitoring.

1.5. The Supervisory Board shall be responsible for:

- implementation of decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders within the competence of the Supervisory Board;
- consequences of its decisions taken within its competence.

1.6. The Supervisory Board consists of fifteen (15) members.

Only natural persons may be Members of the Supervisory Board.

Members of the Supervisory Board may not be the Company's shareholders.

Members of the Executive Committee of the Company may not constitute more than a quarter of the Supervisory Board members.

Members of the Supervisory Board may not be Members of the Auditing Committee.

The persons elected to the Supervisory Board may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms.

The Supervisory Board shall be elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders by cumulative voting. In cumulative voting, the number of votes belonging to each shareholder of the Company shall be multiplied by the number of persons to be elected to the Supervisory Board, and such shareholder shall be entitled to cast the number of votes thus calculated for one candidate or distribute them between two or more candidates. Candidates who have received the most votes shall be considered elected to the Supervisory Board.

Members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected for the term ending on the date of the next Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. In case the General Meeting of Shareholders is not held within the term stipulated by Clause

1 Article 47 of the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies, the authority of the Supervisory Board shall be terminated, apart from its authority to prepare, convene and hold the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

In case of resignation of any Member of the Supervisory Board, the authority of other Members shall not be terminated unless the number of remaining Members is less than a half of the total number of elected Members of the Supervisory Board. In such case, the Supervisory Board shall resolve to hold an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company's Shareholders to elect the Supervisory Board.

Early termination of the Supervisory Board Members' authority may only be resolved by the General Meeting of Shareholders with respect to all Members of the Supervisory Board simultaneously.

1.7. Chairman of the Supervisory Board, First Deputy Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be elected by the Members of the Supervisory Board from among themselves.

The Supervisory Board of the Company shall be entitled to re-elect its Chairman, First Deputy Chairman and Deputy Chairman at any time.

The Chairman of the Company's Executive Committee may not be the Chairman of the Supervisory Board at the same time.

1.8. Technical (information, documentary, protocol, secretarial) support to the on-going activities of the Company's Supervisory Board shall be provided by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board, acting under these Regulations and in accordance with the instructions from the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

The Secretary of the Supervisory Board shall be elected (appointed) by the Company's Supervisory Board.

2. COMPETENCE OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

2.1. Competence of the Supervisory Board is determined by the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies and the Company's Charter.

2.2. Competence of the Supervisory Board shall include dealing with the issues of general management of the Company's operations apart from the issues included into the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders by the Company's Charter.

2.3. The issues included into the competence of the Supervisory Board may not be delegated to the Company's executive bodies.

3. RIGHTS, OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

3.1. The Supervisory Board Members shall be entitled to:

3.1.1. familiarize themselves with any constituent, regulatory, accounting, reporting, contractual and other documents of the Company, including minutes of the Executive Committee meetings, obtain copies thereof, attend the Company's public events, and request and obtain from the Company's President (CEO) any information required to form their opinion on the items on the agenda of a Supervisory Board meeting, in the following manner:

- A respective Member of the Supervisory Board shall send an information request to the Company's President (CEO) who shall in turn transfer the same to the Secretary of the Supervisory Board with a relevant decision.

- The Secretary of the Supervisory Board shall secure access to the requested documents and information for the Supervisory Board Members and provide them with copies of required documents and materials upon their request within five (5) calendar days from the date of receipt of the relevant request;

3.1.2. demand convening of a Supervisory Board meeting;

3.1.3. demand that his or her special opinion on an item on the agenda be included into the minutes of a Supervisory Board meeting;

3.1.4. receive remuneration for the execution of his or her duties in the order and amount determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders, provided a decision to remunerate the Supervisory Board Members has been adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Any Supervisory Board Member shall have other rights stipulated by the Company's Charter and effective laws of the Russian Federation.

3.2. Any Supervisory Board Member shall be obliged to:

3.2.1. adhere to the requirements imposed by the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies and the Company's Charter with respect to Members of the Board of Directors (Supervisory Board) of a joint-stock company;

3.2.2. personally attend the Supervisory Board meetings at which personal attendance is required and participate in decision making by voting on the items on the agenda of the Supervisory Board meetings, whether or not personal attendance is required;

3.2.3. make grounded decisions, and for that purpose examine the necessary information (materials), consider potential risks and unfavourable consequences for the Company;

3.2.4. adhere to the decisions made by the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Supervisory Board;

3.2.5. inform the Secretary of the Supervisory Board about any changes of his or her principal employment (office, private business, etc.);

3.2.7. inform the Supervisory Board about:

- any Company's securities owned by him or her or any plans to enter into any transactions with securities issued by the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates or any closed transactions with such securities;

- any actual or planned participation in foundation, capital or business of entities, enterprises or companies competing with the Company;

3.2.8. provide the Secretary of the Supervisory Board with all the necessary contact details, including the postal address, contact telephone number, fax, e-mail address;

3.2.9. not to disclose any confidential information about the Company that becomes known to him or her.

3.3. Supervisory Board Members shall be responsible to the Company for any losses caused to the Company by their wilful misconduct (omission), unless any other grounds or amount of liability are stipulated by federal laws. Supervisory Board Members shall not be held liable provided they voted against the decision that has caused such losses to the Company or did not participate in the voting.

3.4. Supervisory Board Members acting in breach of their responsibilities under these Regulations and the Company's Charter shall be liable in the amount of losses caused to the Company by such breach of responsibilities by the Supervisory Board Members, including loss of profit of the Company at their market value, unless different grounds for, and amount of, liability are stipulated by effective laws of the Russian Federation.

4. RIGHTS, OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

4.1. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall:

1) arrange for the general activities of the Supervisory Board, plan such activities and oversee implementation of approved work plan of the Supervisory Board;

- 14) acting on commission from the Chairman of the Supervisory Board;
- 15) performing other functions in compliance with effective laws, the Company's Charter and the Company's regulatory documents.

5.3. Any expenses associated with the activities of the Supervisory Board Secretary and relevant remuneration shall be covered by the Company.

6. SUPERVISORY BOARD COMMITTEES, COMMISSIONS AND WORK GROUPS

6.1. The Supervisory Board committees and commissions shall be established by decision of the Supervisory Board.

6.2. The Supervisory Board committees and commissions shall be established with the aim to analyse and prepare decisions on the issues within the Supervisory Board's competence or the issues studied by the Board with the aim to control the activities of the Company's executive body and management and to develop necessary recommendations to the Company's executive body.

6.3. The Supervisory Board committees shall be established to analyse the Company's long-term business issues and to implement effectively the most important management and control functions of the Supervisory Board. Members of the Supervisory Board and experts may be elected to the Supervisory Board committees. The committees' principal functions include the preliminary comprehensive analysis of the issues within the Supervisory Board competence in their areas of activities and development of recommendations for the Supervisory Board.

6.4. The Supervisory Board commissions are established with the aim to analyse current issues of business development and on-going projects implemented by the Company. The Supervisory Board commissions may include the Supervisory Board members, employees of the Company management and experts, including those simultaneously employed by other entities. The head of a Supervisory Board commission shall be appointed by the Supervisory Board.

6.5. On agreement with the Company's executive bodies, the Supervisory Board may establish joint work groups of the Supervisory Board and the Company's executive bodies (for finalising draft decisions and assessment of proposals and remarks made at a meeting).

Heads of such groups appointed by the Supervisory Board shall organise their work and arrange for submission of finalised draft decisions within an established term. Should no specific term be established for finalising such decisions, the standard term shall be ten (10) days.

6.6. The Supervisory Board committees shall act in compliance with the Regulations on committees approved by the Supervisory Board.

6.7. The Supervisory Board commissions and work groups' proceedings, competence and terms shall be regulated by separate decisions of the Supervisory Board.

7. CONVENING AND PREPARING THE SUPERVISORY BOARD MEETINGS (ABSENTEE VOTING)

7.1. The Supervisory Board meetings (absentee voting) may be convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board:

- at his or her own initiative (which includes actions under an approved work plan of the Supervisory Board or in compliance with the date (term) and agenda thereof approved by the Supervisory Board at a previous meeting);
- upon request from a Supervisory Board member, President (CEO) of the Company, Executive Committee, Auditing Committee, or the Auditor (hereinafter referred to as the Initiators).

7.2. The request to convene a meeting shall be made by the Initiators in writing by sending a registered mail to the address of the Supervisory Board or by delivery to the Secretary of the Supervisory Board. The date of request to convene the Supervisory Board meeting shall be determined by the mail delivery note or the date of transfer thereof to the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.

7.3. The request to convene the Supervisory Board meeting (or to carry out an absentee voting) shall contain the following information:

- the name of the Initiator or the body or legal entity making the request;
- signature of the person (head of the body or legal entity) requesting to convene the meeting;
- type of the meeting (by personal attendance or absentee voting);
- proposed agenda;
- information (list of materials) necessary to consider the items on the proposed agenda;
- draft decisions on the items on the proposed agenda.

7.4. The request to convene the Supervisory Board meeting (or to carry out an absentee voting) shall contain the information as follows:

- date of the meeting or deadline for submission of filled out questionnaires by the Supervisory Board Members in case of the absentee voting;
- time and venue of the meeting;
- any other information at the discretion of the Initiator of a meeting (absentee voting).

The request to convene the Supervisory Board meeting containing the proposed date of the same shall be delivered to the Supervisory Board not later than twenty-five (25) business days before the proposed date, apart from the requests concerning the items demanding prompt decisions, provided a written justification thereof is submitted by the Initiator of the Supervisory Board meeting. Such justification shall be submitted to the Supervisory Board Members together with the materials for the meeting.

7.5. Any item may be added to the draft agenda on the initiative of the persons as follows:

- the shareholders commonly owning not less than one per cent of common shares,
- the Supervisory Board,
- the Supervisory Board Members,
- the President (CEO) of the Company,
- the Executive Committee,
- the Auditing Committee,
- the Auditor.

Procedure of preparing draft decisions on the items proposed for consideration by the Supervisory Board at the initiative of the President (CEO) and the Executive Committee and accompanying materials shall be determined by an internal document approved by the President (CEO) of the Company.

7.6. The draft agenda of the Supervisory Board meeting shall be compiled by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board, signed by the President (CEO) of the Company and approved by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board afterwards.

7.7. A decision to include an item into the agenda or refusal to do so shall be made by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board within five (5) business days.

The Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be entitled to refuse convening of a Supervisory Board meeting (absentee voting), provided the item is proposed by an unauthorised person or is outside the competence of the Supervisory Board, or the request to convene the Supervisory Board meeting does not contain the information indicated in Clause 7.3. hereof.

7.8. Notification on the Supervisory Board Meeting or absentee voting:

7.8.1. Notification on the Supervisory Board Meeting shall be sent to each Supervisory Board Member in writing, by fax or e-mail not later than fifteen (15) days before the scheduled meeting.

Such notification shall contain:

- the date, time and venue of the meeting;
- the address to which written opinions shall be sent accompanied by votes on the items on the agenda (to be accounted for in determining the quorum and voting results in case a Supervisory Board Member cannot attend the meeting personally);
- the agenda of the meeting;
- the list of information materials provided to the Supervisory Board Members for the meeting.

The notification shall be accompanied by draft decisions on the items included into the agenda, a justification of the proposed decision, and information materials. The notification may be accompanied by a list of persons invited to attend the meeting.

A draft Supervisory Board decision and relevant materials containing information that comprises a state, commercial or business secret shall be submitted for consideration of the Supervisory Board in compliance with relevant rules.

7.8.2. Notification on absentee voting of the Supervisory Board shall be sent to each Supervisory Board Member in writing, by fax or e-mail not later than seven (7) days before the scheduled voting deadline. Should any urgent issues arise the Chairman of the Supervisory Board may resolve to set a different deadline for sending notification on the absentee voting.

Such notification shall contain:

- the deadline for acceptance of filled out questionnaires from the Supervisory Board Members on the items on the agenda;
- the address to which the filled out questionnaires should be sent;
- the list of issues to be voted on;
- the list of information materials provided to the Supervisory Board Members for absentee voting.

The notification shall be accompanied by a questionnaire containing draft decisions on the items on the agenda, justifications of the proposed decision, and information materials.

A draft Supervisory Board decision and relevant materials containing information that comprises a state, commercial or business secret shall be submitted for consideration of the Supervisory Board in compliance with relevant rules.

7.9. If necessary, a Supervisory Board meeting may be adjourned upon approval by all attending Supervisory Board Members without any decisions made on the items on the agenda.

Should any circumstances arise that make impossible or hinder the Supervisory Board meeting at the venue and/or time on which the Supervisory Board Members were notified, a meeting with the same agenda may be held at a different venue or time.

All the Supervisory Board Members shall be notified on the change of venue and/or time of the meeting with proper account taken of reasonable time needed for them to arrive at the Supervisory Board meeting. Notification about such changes shall be sent to the Supervisory Board Members in any form guaranteeing that such notice can be received by them at their relevant locations or postal addresses.

Opening of the Supervisory Board meetings may not be planned for the night time (from 10:00 p.m. – 6:00 a.m. local time).

A meeting may not be held at a venue or time causing material hindrances for attendance by the majority of the Supervisory Board Members or making such attendance impossible, such as industrial premises or other venues where normal performance of the Supervisory Board appears impossible.

7.10. The Supervisory Board Members may, not later than two (2) days prior to a meeting (absentee voting) submit their remarks or proposals in the items to be considered, to the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.

7.11. Including additional items into the agenda, amending the agenda, or excluding certain items from the agenda of the Supervisory Board meeting may be made during such meeting by a decision made by a three quarters (3/4) majority of the attending Supervisory Board members.

7.12. In the cases stipulated by the law, procedures and terms established by the law shall apply, including the deadlines for sending notification on the meeting and accompanying materials on the issue on the agenda.

8. SUPERVISORY BOARD MEETING (ABSENTEE VOTING)

8.1. The first (planning) meeting of the Supervisory Board upon election thereof shall be convened by any Supervisory Board Member.

8.2. Supervisory Board meetings shall be held in accordance with its work plan and as otherwise required, but not less often than once in a quarter.

The Supervisory Board shall approve its work plan for the period ending at the date of the next Annual General Meeting of the Company's Shareholders. The Supervisory Board work plan shall be based on relevant proposals from the shareholders commonly owning not less than one per cent of common shares, the Supervisory Board Members, the Company's President (CEO), the Company's Executive Committee, the Auditing Committee, or the Company's Auditor.

8.3. A proposal to include an item into the Supervisory Board work plan shall contain:

- information about the person (body) making the proposal;
- wording of the items proposed for consideration;
- justification for raising such items;
- proposed term of consideration of such an item;
- signature of the person (head of the body) making the proposal.

8.4. Inclusion of additional issues into an approved schedule of meetings may only be made by decision of the Supervisory Board.

If necessary, the Supervisory Board may consider items that are not included into its work plan.

8.5. Resolutions by the Supervisory Board shall be deemed lawful (the quorum shall be deemed present) when considered by at least a half of the total number of the Supervisory Board members.

The quorum and procedures for making the Supervisory Board decisions are determined by the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies and the Company's Charter. In cases when under the Federal Law On Joint-Stock Companies or the Company's Charter, a decision shall be made by a qualified majority of the Supervisory Board Members or unanimously without account of resigned Supervisory Board members, the dead, missing or legally incapable members are understood as resigned Supervisory Board Members.

8.6. Each Supervisory Board Member shall have one vote. A Supervisory Board Member's vote may not be transferred to any other Supervisory Board Member. Should an equal number of votes be cast for and against a decision, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be considered decisive.

8.7. Representatives of the state or municipal bodies, Members of the Executive Committee, Auditing Committee, the Company's employees or any other persons may be invited to the Supervisory Board meetings in compliance with the list approved by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

8.8. Upon decision by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, a Supervisory Board meeting may be held in video conference (i.e. a meeting may be held when the Supervisory Board Members are in different locations but can, through video conference communication, see and hear a presenter, ask questions to him, and make proposals concerning the draft decision on the item under consideration). A Supervisory Board meeting held by video conference shall be considered a meeting by personal attendance. The venue of the meeting by video conference shall be the place of location of the Chairman of a Supervisory Board Meeting.

8.9. Resolution on absentee voting shall be taken by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

In case of absentee voting, relevant questionnaires shall be sent to the Supervisory Board Members. Questionnaires to be sent to the Supervisory Board Members in such case shall be compiled by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.

The questionnaires shall contain:

- 1) a reference to the relevant decision of the Supervisory Board or Chairman of the Supervisory Board or an item of the Supervisory Board work plan, under which the absentee voting is held, or a reference to its Initiators if such vote is held on the initiative of other persons or bodies;
- 2) wording of the item to be voted on (agenda);
- 3) wording of the draft decision on each item on the agenda;
- 4) voting options (FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAINED);
- 5) instructions to mark in a proper way one of the voting options for each item;
- 6) description of the manner in which the questionnaire should be filled out (underline, cross out);
- 7) instructions to have the questionnaire signed by a Supervisory Board Member;
- 8) instructions on the term within which the filled out questionnaire should be sent;
- 9) indication of the postal address, e-mail address and fax number to which the filled out questionnaire should be sent.

The date of actual delivery of the questionnaires shall be determined by the date on which the same are sent by a Supervisory Board Member to the e-mail address and fax number indicated in the questionnaires or by the date of their direct delivery to the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.

Questionnaires received from the Supervisory Board Members shall be processed by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board.

The Supervisory Board Members, whose questionnaires are delivered within the deadline set for them, shall be considered to have taken part in the vote.

A questionnaire may be considered invalid completely or partially for separate items if any marks are made in more than one box of voting options for one issue, or the Supervisory Board Member's signature is absent, or if the questionnaire contains amendments and/or remarks to the proposed draft decision.

The Secretary of the Supervisory Board shall make a voting protocol based on the results of absentee voting. Upon a separate request from a Supervisory Board Member, protocol of the absentee voting shall be sent to such Member by registered mail, by e-mail or fax, or delivered in person within three (3) days from the date of request.

9. PROCEEDINGS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD MEETINGS AND DRAWING OF RESOLUTIONS

9.1. Quorum at a Supervisory Board meeting shall be registered by the Secretary of the Supervisory Board in draft minutes of such meeting.

If a Supervisory Board Member is unable to attend the meeting, he or may express his or her opinion on the items on the agenda in writing.

In case such written opinion contains his or her vote on proposed draft decision(s), the relevant Supervisory Board Member shall be considered to have attended the meeting and his or her opinion shall be taken into account in determining the quorum for considering the item on the agenda and the results of voting.

A written opinion shall be presented to the Supervisory Board Members prior to the Supervisory Board meeting.

9.2. In absence of the quorum, the meeting shall be declared ineligible. In such case, the chair of the Supervisory Board shall take one of the following decisions:

- 1) determine the opening time for a new meeting to be held instead of the ineligible meeting with the previously determined agenda, and take steps to arrange for attendance thereof by the Supervisory Board Members;
- 2) inform the Supervisory Board Members when they shall be notified about a new meeting to be held instead of the ineligible one in the order stipulated by these Regulations;
- 3) include the agenda of the ineligible meeting into the agenda of the next scheduled Supervisory Board meeting;
- 4) on agreement with attending Supervisory Board Members, completely or partially exclude the items (agenda) of the ineligible meeting from the items to be considered by the Supervisory Board meetings (apart from the cases stipulated by the effective law).

A new meeting may be held instead of the ineligible one not earlier than in one hour and not later than twenty (20) days after a relevant decision is made by the chair of the Supervisory Board at the Supervisory Board meeting.

Quorum at a Supervisory Board meeting with a given agenda registered in the order indicated above, shall be determined once for the entire Supervisory Board meeting with such agenda irrespective of the actual duration of such meeting.

Should the number of attending Supervisory Board Members turn out to be less than a half of their total number in the course of the Supervisory Board meeting as a result of departure of any Supervisory Board Member(s), the chair of the meeting may make any of the decisions as follows:

- 1) terminate the Supervisory Board meeting due to its inability to adopt any decisions caused by the absence of quorum stipulated by these Regulations (in relevant cases),
- 2) due to the absence of quorum required by these Regulations for the adoption of any decisions by the Supervisory Board, continue the Supervisory Board meeting without taking any decisions with the aim to determine the positions of the remaining Supervisory Board Members and develop recommendations for the Supervisory Board to be considered at the next Supervisory Board meeting.
